Financial Literacy is designed to give individuals the ability to understand basic finance and their own financial situation.

Operation: New View Community Action Agency along with Alliant Credit Union and Health Services Credit Union offer FREE financial education classes to the local community. The classes are based on the

Four Cornerstones of Financial Literacy

and are divided into four sessions. Individuals are given informational materials to make informed decisions regarding their current and future financial situations.

Are money woes getting you down?

Attend these FREE Financial Literacy classes to get your financial situation back on track!

- Budgeting to Create Savings
- Debt Reduction & Asset Building
- Building a Good Credit Rating
- Consumer Protection & Financial Institutions

Classes are held on a quarterly basis at the Prescott Community Center 1151 White Street, Dubuque from 6:00-7:30 pm

Please contact Becky at 563.556.5130 extension 14 or bjenkins@operationnewview.org to find out when the next round of classes start!

Individuals that complete all four sessions will receive a certificate of completion!

Here are some 'WOW' moments from recent graduates:

“The reality that if I only make minimum payments on my credit card it would take me 30 years to pay off!”

“Appreciate the check into our credit scores”
